Contact and Chinook information will be recorded in the COA membership database and the member directory. If for any reason you do not wish to have any part of your information included in the directory please note this on the form.

The breeder fee is in addition to the membership fee and entitles COA member breeders to receive referrals from the Publicity Chairperson, to be listed as a Member Breeder on the COA website, to list studs on the COA website and to all other services that the COA may, from time to time, offer its member breeders.

The stud fee is also in addition to the membership fee and is designed for those members only wishing to list their stud(s) on the webpage. Any stud can be listed regardless of known or unknown health defects and the COA will maintain a strict disclaimer about the health of the listed studs on the page. The fee will entitle the stud owner to list two pictures of the stud along with any statistics the owners wish to list including but not limited to: health, pedigree, working status, progeny, age, size.
